Peter,

It is with absolute confidence that I can recommend Rouse Resources Inc. to any organization who needs professional recruitment support to locate the ideal candidate for any and all middle and senior management positions which become available. You and the RRI team truly embrace and live by the “triple I’s” philosophy that is the foundation of your business approach to executive search.

As you know my relationship with you and Rouse Resources Inc. is currently in its 12th year of valued partnership, both as a candidate, initially, then as a client for over more than a decade of results-oriented service to our leadership search needs. You and your team always demonstrate a consistent dedication to regular and ongoing communication throughout the entire search process, from step one – knowing and understanding your client, it’s business and culture, right through to the final step of making and finalizing an offer of employment. RRI has always been about establishing a positive relationship while delivering timely and impressive outcomes in meeting client expectations.

In addition, I can tell you that you have always given above and beyond service any time I needed advice in general on the marketplace, including salaries, bonus plans, benefits structures, as well as, examples of organizational culture. Your up-to-date knowledge, real life opinions and straight forward style is very much appreciated and an invaluable tool.

Thank you for your effective help and support in the past and I confidently look forward to more of the same in the future.

Sincerely,

Jerry Osier
